

New Toolkit from TSA

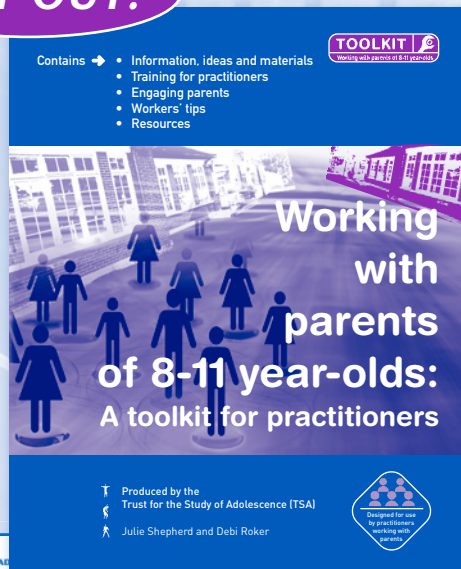

for professionals working with parents of 8-11 year-olds

This new Toolkit is an essential resource for all those working with parents of 'pre-teens', i.e. those aged between 8 and 11, particularly around the move to secondary school. The Toolkit contains a wealth of information, resources and ideas. Topics covered include:

JUST OUT!

- What do parents of 8-11 year-olds want?
- What are the options for working with this group?
- What training and support is available for workers?
- What resources are available to support workers, and parents?
- 'Hints and tips' for effective work with parents

This new Toolkit is invaluable for both experienced parenting workers, and those starting to work with this group of parents.

CD Rom that goes with the Toolkit includes:

- Downloadable sample flier for a parenting course
- Questionnaires to be used to consult parents
- Forms that can be used in evaluation
- Lists of resources and materials, organisations and websites
