New Pack for Schools

with Guide and CD Rom

JUST OUT!

Moving up to Secondary School

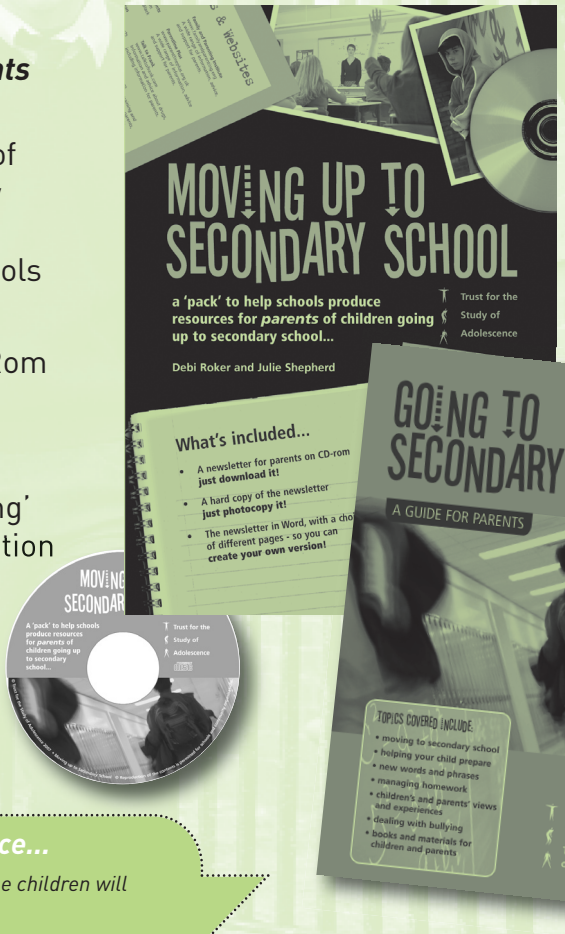
Debi Roker and Julie Shepherd, TSA

A pack to help schools produce resources for parents of children going up to secondary school.

TSA has produced a 16pp 'Guide' to support parents of children going to secondary school. This guide is now available as part of a pack of resources for primary schools. The booklet and CD-Rom pack enables schools to:

- download the parents' guide as it is from the CD-Rom
- photocopy the parents' guide from the copy in the appendix
- or create their own version – by 'cutting and pasting' information from the booklet, or adding in information specific to the school!

This flexible resource will enable schools and professionals to cheaply and easily produce resources for parents, during their child's move to secondary school.



Price: £29.99

What professionals have said about this resource...

"... very well presented and easy to read. It was very informative and I think that the children will relate well to the issues"

"The resources are up to date, modern in presentation and the CD is a very useful addition"

"A positive start is crucial when moving up to secondary school. I feel that preparation using tools such as these is the key to a successful transition"

"I will certainly find this resource extremely useful for my job ... thankyou again for your excellent resources"
